New Orleans and Citizens for Lynching the Italians Charged With the Murder of Chief Police Hennessy—Eleven other Suits to Follow.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., March 12.—A heavy damage suit was instituted in the U. S. circuit court this afternoon against eleven leading citizens of New Orleans by the family of Loreto Cometez, one of eleven Italians who were lynched in Parish prison March fourteenth last charged with the assassination of chief of police Dave Hennessy and supposed to be members of the Mafia. Suit is for $100,000 and the following wealthy citizens are mentioned as participants and inciters to the shooting: Messrs. Malmaey, Baldwin, Parkerson, Boulett, Geo. and Walter Douegre, Houston, Venable S. Mather, and Couturie, and city of New Orleans. This is only one out of eleven suits that will be filed against these gentlemen in the near future.

REVOLTING CRUELTY.

Shameful Treatment of a Stolen Young Girl.

PEORIA, Ill., March 12.—W. H. Petty and a woman, posing as his wife, were arrested Wednesday night for maltreating an adopted daughter 9 years old. In the preliminary hearing it was sworn that Petty stole the child in St. Louis, and that she is the daughter of Mrs. Putnam, a widow. Petty has practiced most revolting cruelties on the child. When she complained of being cold from begging all day, he removed her scanty clothes and after tying a handkerchief over her mouth so her screams could not be heard, held her on a red hot stove until she was terribly burned. The police learned to-day that the woman was from Memphis. Her name is Prentice, and she is said to belong to a good family. The diamonds found yesterday belonged to her husband and her father.

HORRIBLE SCENES.

One Hundred and Fifty Men Still Entombed.

BRUSSELS, March 12.—All night long hundreds of men, women and children kept a dreary watch at the mouth of the shaft of Anderlues colliery where at least 180 miners are entombed. As the relatives of the unfortunate miners rushed frantically into the shaft, gendarmes had to be summoned and they forcibly ejected them. Thirty-three blackened and charred bodies have been taken from the mine up to noon today, leaving no less than 150 still in the mine. The fire caused by the explosion is still burning. The approach to the place where the great body of miners were working is blocked by the carcasses of forty horses. There were a large number of women working in the pit and it is believed all have lost their lives.

WANTS IT BAD

Thayer will Make Another Fight for Governor.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 12.—Ex-Governor Thayer has determined to contest anew the right of Governor Boyd to hold office. His attorneys have sent to Washington for a copy of the recent mandate of the supreme court, and upon the receipt of it will decide upon the proper line of action. Mr. Thayer professes to believe there was a purpose in withholding the mandate, which has not yet been received in this state, and said he was sure there was a loophole for a renewal of the contest.

Wants Them Resurrected.

SPOKANE FALLS, Wash., March 12.—Mrs. H. W. Fitch, wife of the vice-president of the Washington National bank, died Friday a week ago and her baby the next day. Since then her husband has invoked the aid of Christian scientists to bring back his wife and child to life.

Four Men in Battle Array.

WHITESBURG, Ky., March 12.—A pitched battle took place between four persons. J. L. Asher, a well known man in that section, and Mr. Pollick had a dispute which resulted in a fight. Neither was seriously injured.

The forenoon skirmish did not quiet the matter, but tended to add fuel to the fire, as Asher called to his aid one Coombs and Pollick called on Dick Williams. Each received word from the other that matters must be settled.

The four started from their homes toward the same spot. When 200 yards apart a halt was made, but they soon closed up the space. The signal was made and the firing began. Forty shots were exchanged. A ball from the gun of Williams finally went home. It struck Asher in the left breast an inch above the nipple and penetrated the body. He died instantly. Coombs, his partner, was captured. Much excitement prevails in that section. There was a woman in it.
